

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. THE alterations in the Allowances to Solicitors and in the Fees of Court, effected by the General Order of Court of the 30th January, 1857, are so extensive as to render useless to the Practitioner any Forms of Costs hitherto published. An entirely new feature in Chancery Practice is introduced by this Order, viz., the recognition of two Scales of Fees and Charges, regulated by the amount in question in each cause or matter before the Court; which practice, though long known at Common Law, has never, until now, been adopted in Chancery. By reason of these changes, some such Hand-Book as the present has become not merely a matter of convenience, but an absolute necessity; and, with that conviction, the following pages have been compiled.

BILLS OF COSTS IN CHANCERY,
ON THE HIGHER AND LOWER SCALES,
FRAMED WITH SPECIAL REGARD TO THE GENERAL ORDER
OF COURT OF 30TH JANUARY, 1857.

RULES (WHICH MAY BE SPECIALLY NOTICED)
TO BE GENERALLY OBSERVED IN THE PREPARATION OF BILLS OF COSTS IN CHANCERY ON THE NEW SCALES.

The Chancery Folio is to be 72 words, and the sheet 10 folios.

Drawing Documents.—The fee for drawing a document in all cases includes a copy, if required, for the use of the solicitor or client, or for the settlement of counsel.

Perusing Documents.—The fees for perusal are not to apply where the same solicitor is for both parties.

The fees for perusal are in substitution for the former charge for “abbreviating,” which is now to cease.

Copies of all documents are to be at the rate of 4*d.* per folio, or 3*s.* 4*d.* per sheet of 10 folios.

No close copies are to be allowed as of course, but the allowance is to depend on the propriety of making the copy, which in each case is to be shown and considered.

Notices of Motion.
Orders
Certificates . . .

} to serve. { Charge 1s. for each copy on either scale, or 4d. per folio on the higher scale only.

Notices generally.—For any necessary or proper notice not particularly specified, 2s. 6d. is allowed on either scale.

The fees for notices and services are not to apply where the same solicitor is for both parties, unless it be necessary for the purpose of making affidavit of service.

Settling Minutes and passing Decrees or Orders.—Where there is unusual difficulty in settling and passing an order, the Registrar may certify that a special allowance ought to be made in respect thereof, and the Taxing Master is to consider the same, and make such allowance to all or any of the parties as to him shall seem just.

There is to be one notice only of settling minutes and one notice of passing decree or order, which, if, necessary, are to be continued by adjournment, of which all parties are to take notice.

Consents.—The fees for consents are not to apply where the same solicitor is for both parties.

Term Fee
Letters
Postages
Carriage of Parcels

} In addition to the term fee, the necessary expense of the postage, carriage and transmission of documents is to be allowed.

} The like term fee and for letters is to be allowed in matters as in causes.

In country agency causes, besides the ordinary term fee and letters, a further fee of 6s. 8d. on the higher scale only is allowed.

And if it be shown to the satisfaction of the Taxing Master that the agency correspondence has been special and extensive, he is at liberty to make a special allowance in respect thereof.

Where no proceeding is taken which carries a term fee, a charge for letters may be allowed, if the circumstances shall require it.

Affidavits . . . }
Affirmations . . } for the purpose of receiving dividends from the Declarations . . } Accountant-General, may be sworn or taken at Attestations upon } the Record and Writ Office without fee.
Honour . . . }

Bills }
Answers } When the higher scale is applicable, in lieu of Examinations . . } the fixed fees for instructions for and for drawing,
Affidavits . . . } the Taxing Master is at liberty to take into con-
Petitions . . . } sideration the special circumstances of each case,
. } and at his discretion to make such allowances for
. } work, labour and expenses, properly performed
. } and incurred in or about the preparation of the . } bill or answer, examination, affidavit or petition,
. } as shall appear to him to be just, having regard to
. } the length of the document, the nature of the suit,
. } the interests of the parties, and the fund or person
. } from which or by whom the costs are to be paid.

Generally.—For any work or labour properly performed, and not by the General Order of 30th January, 1857, provided for, such allowances are to be made as heretofore.

APPENDIX.

ORDER OF COURT,

FRIDAY, THE 30TH DAY OF JANUARY, 1857.

WHEREAS of late years various alterations have taken place in the practice and procedure of the Court of Chancery, whereby certain of the fees heretofore allowed to the solicitors of the court have ceased, and others of such fees have become inapplicable to the duties which the solicitors have to perform; and it is desirable that a new and revised list of fees should be made:

Now, upon consideration thereof,

The Right Honorable ROBERT MONSEY, Lord CRANWORTH, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, with the advice and assistance of The Right Honorable Sir JAMES LEWIS KNIGHT BRUCE, and the Right Honorable Sir GEORGE JAMES TURNER, the Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal in Chancery, the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir RICHARD TORIN KINDERSLEY, the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir JOHN STUART, and the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir WILLIAM PAGE WOOD, doth order and direct as follows:—

1. The several Orders and parts of Orders following are discharged, so far as regards all costs incurred subsequent to the time when this Order comes into operation:

The Order of the 26th day of February, 1807, except so much thereof as is mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto.

The Sixth Schedule to the Order of the 26th October, 1842.

The 121st Section of the Order of the 8th May, 1845.

So much of the Thirty-third Section of the Order of the 22nd April, 1850, as relates to the fees to be charged by and allowed to solicitors.

The Fourth Section of the Order of the 7th August, 1852, and the Schedule A. appended to such Order.

The Fifth Section of the Order of the 23rd October, 1852.

2. Solicitors are to be entitled to charge and be allowed the fees set forth in the column headed Lower Scale in the First Schedule hereto, in the several cases following, unless the court shall make order to the contrary; that is to say,

1st. In all suits by creditors, legatees, (whether specific, pecuniary, or residuary,) devisees (whether in trust or otherwise), heirs at law or next of kin, in which the personal or real, or personal and real estate for or against or in respect of which, or for an account or administration of which, the demand may be made, shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

2ndly. In all suits for the execution of trusts in which the trust estate or fund shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

3rdly. In all suits for foreclosure or redemption, or for enforcing any charge or lien, in which the mortgage whereon the suit is founded, or the charge or lien sought to be enforced, shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

4thly. In all suits for specific performance, in which the purchase money or consideration shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

5thly. In all proceedings under the Trustees Relief Acts, or under the Trustee Acts, or under any of such acts, in which the trust estate or fund to which the proceeding relates shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

6thly. In all proceedings relating to the guardianship or maintenance of infants, in which the property of the infant shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

7thly. In all proceedings by special case, and in all proceedings relating to funds carried to separate accounts, and in all proceedings under any railway or private Act of Parliament, or under any other statutory or summary jurisdiction, and generally in all other cases where the estate or fund to be dealt with shall be under the amount or value of 1,000*l*.

3. In all other cases solicitors are to be entitled to charge and be allowed the fees set forth in the column headed Higher Scale in the First Schedule hereto, unless the court shall make order to the contrary as to all or any of the parties.

4. The fees of court, now collected by means of stamps, are to be reduced and varied as set forth in the Third Schedule hereto.

The fees set forth in the column headed Lower Scale in the Third Schedule hereto, are to be paid in all cases in which the Lower Scale of fees is to be charged by and allowed to solicitors, under the provisions of the second section of this Order; and the fees of court set forth in the column headed Higher Scale in the Third Schedule hereto, are to be paid in all other cases.

The solicitor or party instituting any proceeding in respect of which he claims to pay the fees of court according to the Lower Scale, is to file with the clerk of records and writes a certificate in the form hereunder set forth, of which certificate the clerk of records and writes is, at the request of any solicitor, or any party acting in person, in the suit or matter, to mark a copy.

On production of such copy of the certificate, the officers of the court are to receive and file all proceedings in the suit or matter bearing stamps according to the Lower Scale.

In any case certified for the Lower Scale of court fees in which it shall happen that the solicitor shall become entitled to charge and be allowed according to the Higher Scale of solicitors' fees, the deficiency in the fees of court is to be made good.

In any case in which the fees of court have been paid upon the Higher Scale, and in which it shall happen that the solicitor shall become entitled to charge and be allowed only according to the Lower Scale of solicitors' fees, the excess of fees of court so paid may be allowed upon the taxation of costs, if the circumstances of the case shall, in the judgment of the taxing master, justify such allowance.

This Order is to come into operation on the 1st day of February, 1857.

Form of Certificate for paying the Lower Scale of Court Fees.

(Title of Cause or Matter.)

I hereby certify, that to the best of my judgment and belief, the Lower Scale of fees of court is applicable to this case. Dated, &c.

"One striking merit in Mr. Broom's book—especially valuable, moreover, in these days of hurried and slipshod authorship—is his conscientious and careful accuracy. The authorities which he adduces are not only selected and arranged with judgment, but cited with exactitude. We see enough to show us that it has not been written with haste, and that it should not be perused hurriedly. The 'Legal Maxims,' by the same author, has taken its own place as a standard treatise both in America and in this country; and the 'Commentaries on the Common Law,' brought down to the present day, and in conformity with the latest reported cases, is a work of which the merits will, as we think, be admitted now and hereafter, when it has reached many future editions."—Law Times, Jan. 12, 1856.

"In these 'Commentaries' the student of the English Common Law will find the best elementary guide yet presented to him for acquiring a knowledge of those practical portions of the law of procedure and of contracts which are of every-day use in court and chambers, communicated in a terse and perspicuous style, with a total absence of pedantry, but with the highest degree of scientific accuracy."—Daily News, Jan. 14, 1856.

PRECEDENTS AND FORMS IN CONVEYANCING, with an Introduction and Practical Notes. By CHARLES DAVIDSON, Esq., of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law, and THOMAS COOKE WRIGHT, Esq., of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law. 1855.

The Publisher begs to call the attention of Gentlemen engaged in the practice of Conveyancing to the new and greatly improved Edition of this well-known Work. In the present Edition will be incorporated DAVIDSON'S COMMON FORMS IN CONVEYANCING, and all the practically useful and valuable parts of MARTIN'S PRACTICE IN CONVEYANCING by DAVIDSON. The Common Forms (already published in the First Volume, of which the contents are indicated) have been greatly augmented in number, and improved in expression:—the objects embraced by many of the Forms being extended, while the language of all has been made more concise and clear. The Three subsequent Volumes will contain the Precedents of Assurances which were published in the Three Volumes of MARTIN'S CONVEYANCING compiled by Mr. DAVIDSON, and numerous additional Precedents, while the Precedents themselves (like the Common Forms) will be made much more concise, and be adapted to the existing state of the Law and the present practice of Conveyancing Draftsmen. The Notes of the former Work, which principally related to the practice of preparing Drafts, and to such points of Law as bore more immediately on that part of the Conveyancer's duty, will be mostly collected in the more convenient form of Introductory Chapters to the Precedents of the several kinds of Assurances, with such alterations and additions as the present state of the law and practice require. The Work has been wholly directed to the preparation of Drafts, and the Publisher does not doubt that (as in the case of the old Work from which this is taken) the precision, conciseness and uniformity of language in the Forms and Precedents must give them an advantage for practical purposes over any collection hitherto offered to the Profession.

TAYLOR'S LAW OF EVIDENCE.

Second Edition.

A TREATISE ON THE LAW OF EVIDENCE, as administered in England and Ireland, with Illustrations from the American and other Foreign Laws. By JOHN PITT TAYLOR, Esq., Judge of the County Courts for Lambeth, Greenwich, and Woolwich. 1855.

Longum iter est per præcepta,
Breve et efficax per exempla!—SENECA.

Criticisms on the First Edition.

"A writer who undertakes, even with the aid of Dr. Greenleaf, to produce a more readable work than Mr. Phillips's, or a more scientific work than Mr. Starkie's as originally written, or a more useful book of reference for the mere practitioner than Mr. Roscoe's as edited by Mr. Smirke, undertakes no trifling matter. But Mr. Taylor appears to have formed no undue estimate of his own powers; and though it is not much our custom to go into practical details, we will rapidly indicate the parts which, independently of his general merits, fully entitle him, in our opinion, to the credit of having made a highly useful contribution to our practical legal literature."—Law Review.

"The work is divided into three parts: the first part treating on the Nature and Principles of Evidence; the second, on the Rules which govern the Production of Testimony; and the third, on the Instruments of Evidence. Under these heads nearly the whole law relating to evidence is comprised. Mr. Taylor has exhibited great assiduity and research in collecting all the statutes and authorities on the subject, and is entitled to much praise for the judicious manner in which he has disposed of his materials. He has, we think, executed his task in a very creditable manner, and produced a work which will be found to be a useful and valuable contribution to a most important branch of our law."—Law Magazine.

"We owe an apology to the author of this work for having delayed so long that favourable notice of it which its merits require. One reason of that delay, however, was a wish to have sufficient time to look into a work of so much importance, before committing ourselves to a recommendation of it; and having now enjoyed that opportunity, we have no hesitation in saying, that, in our opinion, Mr. Taylor has made a valuable addition to our legal literature. He has presented the profession with an elaborate, well-arranged, and, as far as we have been able to ascertain, accurate work, on a subject of great practical importance—the Law of Evidence—which may be said to have been almost entirely remodelled in England within the last few years, and certainly placed upon at once sounder and wider foundations than it has ever heretofore rested on. * * * We heartily congratulate Mr. Taylor on the result of his labours, as they are highly creditable to himself, evincing the mastery of a very difficult branch of law, and calculated to afford valuable assistance to all branches of the profession."—Legal Observer.

"None who are preparing for the office of an advocate should omit to make Mr. Taylor's work a portion of his course of reading. During the five years that we have been keeping this record of the progress of legal literature, our attention has been directed to no more valuable contribution to it than that now before us."—Law Times.

"It would be most ungrateful did I not commemorate the aid which enabled us to carry the Evidence Amendment Bill. I mean, first of all, the assistance of our friend Pitt Taylor, who, as author of the last and ablest work on the Law of Evidence, was well calculated to assist in this important service."—Extract of a Letter to Lord Denman from Lord Brougham.—Law Review.

SMITH'S LAW OF LANDLORD AND TENANT.

THE LAW OF LANDLORD AND TENANT, in a Course of Lectures delivered in the Law Institution. By JOHN WILLIAM SMITH, Esq., late of the Inner Temple Barrister-at-Law; Author of "A Selection of Leading Cases," &c. With Notes and Additions, by FREDERICK PHILIP MAUDE, Esq., of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law. 1855.

"With this long commentary, suggested by the peculiar features of this volume, but of general application, we close it with a hearty commendation of its contents to the perusal of all students and of all practitioners who do not feel themselves to possess a sufficient mastery of the principles of the law of Landlord and Tenant, and of the broad outlines of its practice."—Law Times.

"The volume before us will be found fully to sustain the great reputation of its deceased Author, and as regards the notes and references contained in it, which have been respectively prepared and selected with much care and discernment, to confer very considerable credit on its learned Editor."—Law Magazine.

WARREN'S BLACKSTONE.

BLACKSTONE'S COMMENTARIES, systematically abridged and adapted to the existing state of the Law and Constitution, with great Additions. By SAMUEL WARREN, of the Inner Temple, Esq., D.C.L., F.R.S., Recorder of Hull, and one of her Majesty's Counsel. 1855.

"Mr. Warren's recently published Epitome of Blackstone's Commentaries is a work which contains much original and valuable matter, and being written in a high and praiseworthy spirit, is specially recommended for perusal to Students of the Law."—Law Magazine.

"Mr. Warren's abridgment of Blackstone, with the corrected and additional matter rendered necessary by the changes in the law since the great Commentator wrote, more especially the extensive alterations since the Reform Bill, is a valuable book."—Spectator.

"This work, modestly called 'a Systematic Abridgment,' partakes far more of the character of a deeply considered original work; into which is incorporated the very essence of all that remains in force as expounded by Blackstone."—Legal Observer.

"Nothing appears to be so easy as abridgment; but, in fact, nothing is so difficult. It demands taste, discretion, learning, and a peculiar aptitude for putting ideas into words. To a reverent mind nothing is more abhorrent than to touch an old, honoured and admired edifice, in order to adapt it to modern requirements, and yet such a mind only can do it satisfactorily. It is in this spirit that Mr. Warren appears to have set himself to the work; preserving his master where he could do so, and when compelled to alter, altering in his very spirit. We recommend this volume thus produced to all who seek a general knowledge of that structure which we call the law of England, and to students of the law as introductory to larger works."—Law Times.

"In the compass of one moderate volume we have an abridgment of the Commentaries, or a considerable portion of them, with such revisions and additions as adapt it to the existing state of the law. It would be hardly possible, we think, to have projected a more valuable work for the purposes of tuition. It seems peculiarly fitted for the higher classes in all academies, and for the student at college, whether he intends, or not, to pursue the profession of the law."—Blackwood's Magazine.

"This work bears marks which cannot be mistaken, not only of study, research and care, but of a correct and analytical judgment, and of that 'legal mind' which finds a grateful pursuit, not only in investigating the minutiae of the science, but also the great principles which should guide the highest human effort, the making of laws to regulate the rights and duties of mankind. . . For educational, general and even professional reading, Mr. Warren's Blackstone is a complete and valuable text-book, forming as concise a compendium of our jurisprudence as the 'Code Napoleon' of the law of France."—Press.

"It is one of the great merits of this laborious work, that while it is perfectly precise, it is written with such freedom from technical phraseology, as to be easily intelligible to the general reader. That portion of the Commentaries which is really valuable is studiously retained, and such interpolations made in the text as were required to render clear the present state of the law and constitution. Those interpolations are so extensive, that it may fairly be said that two-thirds at least of the volume consist of new and original matter, clearly arranged and suited to the apprehension of the unlearned as well as the learned reader."—Morning Herald.

"To the preparation of such a work no man was better fitted, by his extensive legal knowledge, his command of a clear and graceful style, and an earnest interest in the work, than Mr. Warren. And although he has written many works which will give him a place in the literary history of our day, he has probably not sent forth one likely to prove of more practical utility to the rising generation than that which we now dismiss, with these words of hearty commendation."—Morning Chronicle.

"No one who looks for one moment at this portly volume will be disposed to under-rate the immense labour and care bestowed upon its compilation. There can be no doubt that it will become a standard work for reference."—Church and State Gazette.

"The book before us may be called original as fairly as any law-book can. Mr. Warren has produced a book of which it would be difficult to speak too highly, as regards either its design or its execution."—Standard.

"No one had yet attempted to adapt the Commentaries to modern times within a reasonable space. This is the great task which Mr. Warren undertook. . . . After a careful perusal of his work, we venture to say that he has been highly successful in treating a most intricate and ever-changing subject—both in weeding the Commentaries of what were obsolete and useless, and in making whatever additions the mutata temporum ratio demanded."—Cambridge Chronicle.

BROOM'S LEGAL MAXIMS.

Third Edition in the Press.

A SELECTION OF LEGAL MAXIMS, Classified and Illustrated. By HERBERT BROOM, Esq., of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law. 1848.

"This is not merely a new edition, but rather a new work built on the groundwork of the last. It is a real work. A goodly fruit of rich soil and careful culture. It is a compendium of law, combining the very marrow of its principles and precepts, from which all extraneous and barren offshoots are cut off; comprising all the cases, old and new, that can illustrate, and none that can encumber principles. It is among the few law books that we can bind and place permanently for constant use on the handiest shelf of our bookcase."—Law Magazine, May, 1848.

CRABB'S TECHNICAL DICTIONARY.

A TECHNICAL DICTIONARY; or a Dictionary explaining all Terms of Art and Science. By GEORGE CRABB, Esq., M.A., author of the "Universal Technological Dictionary," the "Dictionary of Synonymes," &c.

"Within the compass of a thick but portable volume we have a large body of useful information of a kind which cannot fail to be acceptable to all who require a general explanation of the various terms in science and art so generally used in literature. The great merit of these explanations is their brevity, and the manner in which the compiler has done his task is most satisfactory."—Art-Journal.

"This is a well printed volume of 658 pages, containing short definitions of as many terms in art and science as can be compressed into such a space."—Gardener's Chronicle.

"This is an abridgment, in a portable form, of a well-known larger Dictionary, by the same author. It is calculated to be extensively useful to those who cannot afford to purchase, or have not leisure to consult, any of those bulky and high-priced Dictionaries which are so much the fashion."—Daily News.

"This is a work of great practical utility to all who are connected with or interested in the Arts and Sciences. It forms a sort of pocket cyclopædia, and rather a comprehensive one of its kind, embracing as it does a wide range of subject, much of it such as every day's experience shows us the advantage of being acquainted with. 'To bring it within the size and price that will be most generally acceptable,' the preface tells us, 'care has been taken to make the definitions as concise as possible, consistently with the clearness and fulness of explanation which the subject may demand.' And this idea is admirably carried out."—Oxford University and County Herald.

PROFESSOR GREENLEAF'S EXAMINATION OF THE TESTIMONY OF THE FOUR EVANGELISTS,

BY THE RULES OF EVIDENCE ADMINISTERED IN COURTS OF LAW; with the Harmony of the Four Gospels, arranged in four parallel columns, and a Synopsis of their Contents. To which is added,

M. DUPIN'S REFUTATION OF JOSEPH SALVADOR'S TRIAL AND CONDEMNATION OF OUR SAVIOUR.

Translated from the French by Dr. PICKERING. 1847.

"The design of this work, as its title imports, is to bring the narratives of these witnesses to the tests usually applied to the evidence of other transactions in Courts of Law, as well documentary as oral, in order to ascertain what degree of credit they would be entitled to receive in human tribunals. The principles of the Law of Evidence applicable to such subjects are stated in a preliminary discourse, in which also the characters and situation of the Evangelists, their motives of conduct, and the nature and probability of their narratives and assertions, are examined. The four Gospels are exhibited in parallel columns, arranged after the order of Archbishop Newcome's Harmony, as recently collected and published by Professor Robinson. In the Appendix is contained a legal account of the two trials of Jesus, before the Sanhedrim and Pilate; and a translation of the Jewish account of those transactions, given by M. Salvador, a learned Jew, in his Histoire des Institutions de Moïse et du Peuple Hébreu. This work is inscribed to the members of the legal profession; but it will be found equally interesting to clergymen, and to all others who may be disposed to examine the subject."
